

ATOM Whistleblower Protection Policy

1. SCOPE

The ATOM group of companies consists of Mota Investments Pty Ltd (ACN 158 946 144) and each of its controlled entities (Company).

This Whistleblower Protection Policy (Policy) applies to current and former:

- employees;
- volunteers;
- contractors (including employees of contractors);
- officers (within the meaning of the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth) (Corporations Act); and
- associates (within the meaning of the Corporations Act).

This Policy details the Company's framework for receiving, investigating and addressing allegations of Misconduct (as defined in clause 3.4 of this Policy), which may relate to the Company itself, current and former directors, officers, agents, employees or contractors (both past and present) of the Company.

In addition, where the Company relies on an external organisation to manage aspects of the whistleblower process on the Company's behalf, the Company will use its best endeavours to ensure that the external organisation complies with the requirements of this Policy and the governing legislation.

In the event of any inconsistency, the legislative requirements of the local country will override the provisions of this document.

1. POLICY STATEMENT AND OBJECTIVES

Statement

The Company is committed to fostering a culture of ethical behaviour and good corporate governance. The Company recognises that any genuine commitment to instil these values and detect wrongdoing must include a reporting mechanism whereby employees and other persons can report their concerns freely and without fear of reprisal or intimidation.

The Company recognises the importance of providing a safe, supportive and confidential environment where people will feel secure when reporting wrongdoing. This Policy aims to instil the idea that reporting wrongdoing is not an act of disloyalty but a service to the organisation, its stakeholders, and the wider community.

To encourage reporting of concerns, any individual who intends to make a report needs to be confident that they can raise concerns without being subject to victimisation and that their concerns will be taken seriously. The Policy encourages a commitment by people in all levels of the organisation to report Misconduct. In doing so, this Policy aims to protect the people who come forward with their concerns.

In addition, the Company will build awareness of this Policy by providing appropriate training to employees. The training will cover details on what may or may not amount to misconduct and how to raise it. Specialist training will be provided to senior employees responsible for ensuring the implementation of key elements of this Policy.

This Policy is available to officers and employees of the Company and to external persons via the Company website at <https://www.atom.com.au>.

Objectives

The objectives of this Policy are to:

- protect Eligible Whistleblowers who raise concerns about improper conduct;
- facilitate an environment that allows Eligible Whistleblowers the opportunity to speak up with the confidence that they will remain anonymous;
- provide any person making a report with an understanding of what will be a Whistleblower Disclosure under the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth);
- provide staff with a clear understanding of how reports will be handled;
- protect Eligible Whistleblowers from Detrimental Conduct;
- provide support to Eligible Whistleblowers throughout the reporting process;
- provide a system of fair treatment for employees of the Company who are mentioned in Whistleblower Disclosures or to whom such a disclosure relates; and
- ensure that any reports of Misconduct are taken seriously and dealt with appropriately.

The Company Values

This Policy is also underpinned by the Company's values to:

- show determination to take the right action;
- respect the views of others; and
- speak and act honestly and ethically at all times.

3. WHISTLEBLOWER DISCLOSURES

What is a Whistleblower Disclosure?

A Whistleblower Disclosure is a report of Misconduct made by an Eligible Whistleblower to an Eligible Recipient.

Eligible Whistleblower means a person who is currently, or was previously:

- an officer of the Company (within the meaning of the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth));
- an employee of the Company;
- an individual who supplies services or goods to the Company (whether paid or unpaid) or that individual's employee;
- an individual who is an associate of the Company;
- a relative or a dependant of any individual referred to in the preceding dot points of this definition; or
- any other individual prescribed by law.

Eligible Recipient means any one of the following:

- an Executive of the Company;
- an auditor, or member of an audit team conducting an audit, of the Company or a related body corporate;
- the individual employed by the Company in the position of Human Resources Manager or equivalent from time to time;
- Chair of the Safety Committee; or
- any other individual prescribed by the law.

Misconduct means information which an Eligible Whistleblower has reasonable grounds to suspect concerns misconduct or an improper state of affairs or circumstances in relation to the Company, including if the Eligible Whistleblower suspects the Company (or officers or employees) have engaged in conduct which:

- constitutes an offence against, or in contravention of, a provision of any of the following:
 - the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth);
 - the Australian Securities and Investment Act 2001 (Cth);
 - the Banking Act 1959 (Cth);
 - the Financial Sector (Collection of Data) Act 2001 (Cth);
 - the Insurance Act 1973 (Cth);
 - the Life Insurance Act 1995 (Cth);
 - the National Consumer Credit Protection Act 2009 (Cth);
 - the Taxation Administration Act 1953 (Cth);
 - the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993 (Cth); or
 - an instrument made under any of the laws set out in the preceding subparagraphs;
- constitutes an offence against any other law of the Commonwealth that is punishable by imprisonment for a period of 12 months or more;
- constitutes tax-related misconduct and the information may assist the Company's team member or officer, or the Commissioner of Taxation, to perform their functions or duties under Commonwealth taxation law in relation to the tax affairs of the Company;
- represents a danger to the public or the stability of, or confidence in the financial system (even if it does not involve a breach of a particular law); or
- is prescribed by the law of any jurisdiction in which the Company or its subsidiaries operate.

Such conduct may include:

- fraud or fraudulent activity, or corrupt or unlawful behaviour;
- misleading or deceptive conduct, including conduct or representations which amount to improper or misleading accounting or financial reporting practices;
- anti-competitive behaviour;
- insider trading;
- serious and mismanaged conflicts of interest;
- endangering the health and safety of any person, which has been reported to management but not acted upon; and/or
- creating a significant danger to the environment.

Duties of Employees in relation to Misconduct

It is expected that employees of the Company who become aware of Misconduct will make a report to an Eligible Recipient listed under this Policy (refer above clause 3.3).

A report should not be made with the intention of damaging the career prospects and reputation of person(s) who is/are the subject of the Misconduct.

Personal work-related grievances

This Policy (and protections under the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth)) do not apply to reports of personal work-related grievances.

Personal Work-related Grievance means a grievance:

- about any matter in relation to the Eligible Whistleblower's employment or former employment having or tending to have personal implications for the Eligible Whistleblower;
- that does not have significant implications for the Company except that it relates to the Eligible Whistleblower; and
- that does not concern conduct or alleged conduct referred to in 4.

Examples of Personal Work-related Grievances may include, but are not limited to, the following:

- an interpersonal conflict between two employees; and
- decisions relating to engagement, transfer or promotion of employment.

A Personal Work-related Grievance may still qualify for protection if it includes information about Misconduct or information about Misconduct is accompanied by a Personal Work-related Grievance.

Disclosures not protected

Anyone who makes a Whistleblower Disclosure without reasonable grounds to suspect Misconduct in that Whistleblower Disclosure:

- is not entitled to the protections available for Eligible Whistleblowers under the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth) or other applicable State and Federal anti-discrimination legislation or equivalent legislation in the relevant jurisdiction;
- is not afforded any protection under this Policy;
- may be subject to disciplinary action, including up to termination of their engagement or employment; and may be guilty of an offence.

The making of a Whistleblower Disclosure will not prevent the Company from commencing or continuing with any investigation into allegations of misconduct against the Eligible Whistleblower or any management of the Eligible Whistleblower's performance that do not relate to the Eligible Whistleblower making a Whistleblower Disclosure.

Disclosures which are not about Misconduct do not qualify for protection under the Corporations Act 2001(Cth).

Whistleblower Protection Officer means the Company's Chair of the Safety Committee, who for the purposes of this Policy is responsible for protecting or safeguarding disclosers and ensuring the integrity of the reporting mechanisms.

4. COMPLAINT PROCEDURES

Who should I tell?

Whistleblower Disclosure

It is the Company's preference that any suspected Misconduct be reported internally in the first instance. However, the Company recognises that it will not always be appropriate to make an internal report of suspected Misconduct.

An Eligible Whistleblower is entitled to seek additional information from the Whistleblower Protection Officer about the process for making a Whistleblower Disclosure or seek independent legal advice about making a disclosure.

Whistleblower Disclosures may be made anonymously and/or confidentially and may also be made outside of business hours. If a Whistleblower Disclosure is made in an email from which the person's identity cannot be determined, it will be treated as an anonymous Whistleblower Disclosure.

To qualify for a protection under the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth), an Eligible Whistleblower must make a report of Misconduct:

- verbally or in writing to an Eligible Recipient;
- verbally or in writing to ASIC, APRA or a prescribed Commonwealth authority such as the Australian Federal Police, or to an equivalent body in the jurisdiction in which an Eligible Whistleblower is making a report of Misconduct; or
- to a legal practitioner (for the purpose of obtaining legal advice or representation in relation to the operation of the whistleblower provisions in the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth)).

Public Interest Disclosure

Public Interest Disclosures relate to a report of Misconduct to a member of the Parliament of the Commonwealth, a State or a legislature of Territory, or equivalent governmental bodies in relevant jurisdictions, or a journalist in accordance with this clause.

An Eligible Whistleblower may make a Public Interest Disclosure, other than a disclosure relating to the Taxation Administration Act 1953 (Cth) or tax related misconduct, if:

- at least 90 days has passed since an Eligible Whistleblower made an initial report to ASIC, APRA or the Australian Federal Police (or an equivalent body in the relevant jurisdiction); and
- the Eligible Whistleblower does not believe, on reasonable grounds, that action is being taken, or has been taken, to address the Misconduct; and
- the Eligible Whistleblower has reasonable grounds to believe that making a further disclosure of the information in accordance with this clause would be in the public interest; and
- after the end of the 90 day period referred to above, the Eligible Whistleblower gave the body to which the previous disclosure was made, a written notification that:
- included sufficient information to identify the previous report of Misconduct; and
- stated that the Eligible Whistleblower intended to make a Public Interest Disclosure; and
- the extent of the information disclosed is no greater than necessary to inform of the Misconduct; and
- the Eligible Whistleblower has sought independent legal advice before making the Public Interest Disclosure.

Emergency Disclosures

Emergency Disclosure means an emergency report of Misconduct to a member of the Parliament of the Commonwealth or a State or the legislature of a Territory, or equivalent governmental bodies in relevant jurisdictions, or a journalist in accordance with this clause.

An Eligible Whistleblower may make an Emergency Disclosure, other than a disclosure relating to the Taxation Administration Act 1953 (Cth) or tax related misconduct, if:

- the Eligible Whistleblower made an initial report of Misconduct to ASIC, APRA or the Australian Federal Police (or an equivalent body in the relevant jurisdiction);
- the Eligible Whistleblower has reasonable grounds to believe that the information concerns a substantial and imminent danger to the health or safety of one or more persons or to the natural environment;
- after the Eligible Whistleblower's initial report the Eligible Whistleblower then gave written notification to the body who received the initial report (which written notification includes sufficient information to identify the previous report of Misconduct and states that the Eligible Whistleblower intends to make an Emergency Disclosure); and
- the extent of the information disclosed is no greater than necessary to inform of the substantial and imminent danger associated with the Misconduct; and
- the Eligible Whistleblower has sought independent legal advice before making the Emergency Disclosure.

What if the disclosure relates to an Eligible Recipient?

If a Whistleblower Disclosure relates to an individual who qualifies as an Eligible Recipient, the Eligible Whistleblower may report the Whistleblower Disclosure to another Eligible Recipient, ASIC, APRA, the Australian Federal Police (or the equivalent thereof in the relevant jurisdiction) and cooperate with such entities (including in an investigation if necessary) so far as is lawfully required.

Duties of an Eligible Recipient who receives a Whistleblower Disclosure

An Eligible Recipient who receives a Whistleblower Disclosure:

- must promptly review the disclosure;
- must ensure the disclosure is investigated (where appropriate) by a Whistleblower Investigation Officer as set out in clause 5 of this Policy;
- where lawfully required, report the alleged Misconduct to the appropriate external body (within the relevant jurisdiction) and cooperate with such entities;
- will report the Whistleblower Disclosure to the Board of the Company;
- must not disclose information obtained directly or indirectly because of the Whistleblower Disclosure if it would identify the Eligible Whistleblower or any information that is likely to lead to the identification of the Eligible Whistleblower unless the disclosure is made:
 - with the Eligible Whistleblower's consent;
 - in accordance with clause 4.1.5(c) of this Policy;
 - to a legal practitioner for the purposes of obtaining legal advice or representation in relation to a Whistleblower Disclosure; or
 - to a person prescribed by law; and
 - must not Victimise an Eligible Whistleblower as a consequence of a Whistleblower Disclosure.

5. INVESTIGATIONS

Who investigates a report?

In accordance with clause 4.1.5(b) of this Policy, Eligible Recipients must ensure the disclosure is investigated (where appropriate) by a Whistleblower Investigation Officer. The Whistleblower Investigation Officer may undertake an investigation themselves or engage appropriately qualified and independent investigators to do so. It is at the Whistleblower Investigation Officer's discretion to determine whether the report is investigated and whether that investigation is conducted internally or externally.

The Whistleblower Investigation Officer must be a different person to the Eligible Recipient.

The Whistleblower Investigation Officer must be one of the following Company personnel:

- an Executive;
- Human Resources Manager or Equivalent; or
- Chair of the Safety Committee.

If the Whistleblower Disclosure relates to the Whistleblower Investigation Officer, then the Eligible Recipient must instead make the report to the Company's Board which will then act as Whistleblower Investigation Officer for that investigation.

What is the investigation process when you make a report under this Policy?

All Whistleblower Disclosures will be treated seriously and sensitively, and assessed and considered by the Company in determining whether the report should be investigated. The investigation process will depend on the nature of the report.

Any investigations commenced will be conducted in a timely manner. All employees and contractors must cooperate with any investigations.

Roles and responsibilities of the Whistleblower Investigation Officer and the Company

The Whistleblower Investigation Officer and the Company, or any other person investigating the Whistleblower Disclosure pursuant to this Policy, will:

- provide assistance to the Eligible Whistleblower in relation to the process and this Policy;
- consider whether the conduct raised constitutes a Whistleblower Disclosure and where it does not, notify the discloser of any other processes outside of the whistleblower process that can be taken to address the allegations;
- enable the investigation into the Misconduct in a timely manner, and will use reasonable endeavours to finalise this process within two months noting that the timeframes for investigation will vary depending on the nature of a Whistleblower Disclosure and the timeframes for delivery of advice by external advisors (if any);
- maintain a confidential record of the allegations and processes concerning an investigation into a Whistleblower Disclosure;
- be able to report a Whistleblower Disclosure to ASIC, APRA or the Australian Federal Police and must cooperate with such entities so far as is lawfully required;
- not engage in any conduct which constitutes Victimisation; and
- maintain the Eligible Whistleblower's confidentiality, privacy and anonymity (as required).

Communication with the whistleblower

If appropriate, the Eligible Whistleblower will be informed of the progress and/or outcome of the investigation and may be provided with information relating to the outcome of the investigation in a timely manner. If this occurs, the Eligible Whistleblower must maintain confidentiality of such information and not disclose any information provided to them to any person.

What happens after an investigation?

At the conclusion of the investigation, the Whistleblower Investigation Officer will report their findings to the Executive Chairman who will determine the appropriate response in accordance with this Policy, any other applicable Company Policies, and any applicable legislation. The findings of the investigation should be documented.

The response will aim to rectify any Misconduct and/or take the action necessary to prevent any future occurrences of the same of similar conduct.

6. CONFIDENTIALITY AND PRIVACY

Anonymity of your identity

You are able to anonymously make Whistleblower Disclosures and still be protected under the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth). The person you make your report to will not reveal your identity, or any information that is likely to lead to the identification of your identity, unless:

- you consent to the disclosure of your identity;
- disclosure of your identity is required or permitted under any applicable legislation; or
- if it is reasonably necessary to investigate the report of Misconduct and the discloser takes all reasonable steps to reduce the risk of identifying the Eligible Whistleblower;
- it is for the purposes of obtaining legal advice; or

- If it is reasonably necessary to disclose certain information about the report you have made, excluding your identity, for the purposes of investigating the Misconduct, the Company will take all reasonable steps to reduce the risk that you will be identified through this process.

It is possible that someone might deduce your identity without there having been a breach of confidentiality as a consequence of the nature of the investigatory process.

To ensure the anonymity of a discloser, the Company may:

- redact all personal information or references to the discloser witnessing an event;
- refer to the discloser in a gender-neutral manner;
- remind each person who is involved in handling and investigating a Whistleblower Disclosure about their obligation to maintain confidentiality; or
- limit access to all information relating to a Whistleblower Disclosure to those directly involved in managing and investigating the Whistleblower Disclosure.

Unauthorised disclosures

Unauthorised disclosures of:

- the identity of a whistleblower who has made a report of Misconduct; or
- information from which the identity of the whistleblower could be inferred, will be regarded as a disciplinary matter and will be dealt with in the appropriate manner by the Company. It is illegal to identify an Eligible Whistleblower in circumstances other than those outlined in clause 6.1 above. Unauthorised disclosures may also constitute an offence under the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth) and other laws and may attract penalties.

Privacy issues

Personal information will be protected in accordance with the Company's Privacy Policy and any applicable legislation.

Not actionable

A Whistleblower Disclosure qualifies for protection under the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth) or the Taxation Administration Act 1953 (Cth) (where appropriate) and includes a Public Interest Disclosure and an Emergency Disclosure.

An Eligible Whistleblower who makes a Whistleblower Disclosure will not be subject to any civil, criminal or administrative liability (including disciplinary action) for making the disclosure. However, if the disclosure reveals misconduct on part of the Eligible Whistleblower, this Policy does not grant them immunity from an appropriate disciplinary action. No contractual or other remedy may be enforced, and no contractual or other right may be exercised, against them on the basis of the disclosure.

Where a Whistleblower Disclosure is an Emergency Disclosure, Public Interest Disclosure, or a disclosure to ASIC, APRA or a prescribed Commonwealth authority such as the Australian Federal Police, then subject to the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth) and the Taxation Administration Act 1953 (Cth) the information is not admissible in evidence against the Eligible Whistleblower in criminal proceedings or proceedings for the imposition of a penalty (unless the proceedings relate to the Whistleblower Disclosure in question being false).

7. PROTECTION FROM VICTIMISATION

The Company is committed to ensuring confidentiality in respect of all matters raised under this Policy.

Eligible Whistleblower will not be Victimised

The Company and its employees, officers and directors must not Victimise an Eligible Whistleblower as a consequence of making, proposing to make or being able to make a Whistleblower Disclosure. The Company will promptly investigate allegations of breach of Victimisation under this Policy.

Victimisation means engaging in, or threatening to engage in, Detrimental Conduct against a person because the perpetrator of the Detrimental Conduct believes or suspects the person may have made, proposes to make or could make a Whistleblower Disclosure.

Detrimental Conduct includes:

- dismissal of an employee;
- injury of an employee;
- alteration of an employee's position or duties to their disadvantage;
- discrimination between an employee and other employees of the same employer;
- harassment or intimidation of a person;
- harm or injury to a person, including psychological harm;
- damage to a person's property;
- damage to a person's reputation;
- damage to a person's business or financial position; or
- any other damage to a person; but excludes:

- administrative action which is reasonable for the purpose of protecting an Eligible Whistleblower; and
- managing an Eligible Whistleblower's unsatisfactory work performance.

Protections available

The Company will take all reasonable steps to ensure that adequate and appropriate protection is being provided to those who make, propose to make, or could make, a report or are referred to in a disclosure. The protection applies if the matter is proven or not and regardless of whether it is reported to an external authority. If you believe that you have suffered any of the abovementioned treatment as a result of raising a concern, you should inform the Whistleblower Protection Officer.

You may also seek an independent legal advice or make a complaint to a regulatory body (such as ASIC or APRA) if you are concerned about a breach of confidentiality or if you believe that you are being, or have been, Victimised.

The protections offered will vary depending on the nature of the misconduct reported and the people involved. Protections may include, but are not limited to, the following:

- monitoring and managing the behaviour of others in the workplace;
- offering a leave of absence or flexible workplace arrangements while a matter is investigated; and/or
- access to and support from the Whistleblower Protection Officer.

The Company will take appropriate disciplinary action up to and including termination of engagement or employment if an individual engages in a substantiated Misconduct, if they Victimise a person or if they unreasonably fail to comply with this Policy, for example by making unauthorised disclosures of the identity of the Eligible Whistleblower, or of information from which their identity could be inferred.

Compensation

An Eligible Whistleblower may also seek compensation and other remedies through the courts if:

- they suffer loss, damage, or injury because of making of a Whistleblower Disclosure; and
- the Company failed to take reasonable precautions and exercise due diligence to prevent the Detrimental Conduct.

8. TREATMENT OF INDIVIDUALS REFERRED TO IN REPORTS

The Company will ensure that the investigation process will be thorough, objective, fair and independent of anyone, or any business unit of the Company, who is the subject of the Reportable Conduct.

Handling the identity of accused persons with confidentiality

The identity of accused individuals will only be disclosed on a strict need to know basis and information containing the identity of the accused individual will only be available to individuals who are directly involved in an investigation, or those involved due to their role within the Company (for example, senior management).

Preserve a presumption of innocence during the investigation process

Any investigations will only be initiated if there are reasonable grounds to suspect wrongdoing provided by the whistleblower. If there are reasonable grounds and an investigation ensues, the presumption of innocence applies to the accused.

9. CONTACT DETAILS

CONTACT PERSON	PHONE	EMAIL/WEBSITE
Payroll and HR Supervisor	08 9351 3600	info@atom.com.au
Group Financial Controller	08 9351 3600	info@atom.com.au
Whistleblower Investigation Officer	08 9351 3600	info@atom.com.au
Whistleblower Protection Officer	08 9351 3600	info@atom.com.au

10. GOVERNANCE AND POLICY REVIEW

Policy review

This Policy is subject to annual review by the Board or Executive Chairman to ensure that it remains effective and meets best practice standards and the needs of the Company.

This Policy has been created in response to the Treasury Laws Amendment (Enhancing Whistleblower Protections) Act 2019 (Cth). It takes into account the guidance provided by the Australian Securities and Investments Commission in the Regulatory Guide 270 Whistleblower policies.